

Legal notice for the submission of photos

By submitting your photos, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

Copyrights

The submitter assures that he/she owns all rights to the submitted photos, that the photos are free of third party rights and that no personal rights are violated in the depiction of persons.

If one or more persons are recognizably depicted in the photo, the persons concerned must agree to the photo being published. The submitter also assures that he/she will not submit any material that violates legal regulations.

All illegal content is prohibited, in particular content that encourages racial hatred, offensive or contemptuous content, as well as representations or descriptions of sexual acts.

Illegal content will be reported immediately without warning and exceptions. Should third parties nevertheless make claims for infringement of their rights, the submitter shall indemnify the organizer against all claims.

Responsibility for the content (images, files, texts, etc.) lies exclusively with the person who submitted the images.

Liability

The Technical University of Munich assumes no liability for the loss of or any damage to the submitted photos.

Granting of rights

The submitter agrees that the photos may be used by the TUM Global & Alumni Office within the scope of its duties (e.g. on the website or on posters, flyers, etc.) to promote international exchange.

Data protection

When the images are used for the above-mentioned purposes, the photographer will be named as the author as well as any other persons depicted in the image might be named. The submitter expressly agrees to this.

Legal remedies

Legal recourse is excluded.
